Funding for Master Student Position to research Rural Development

Funding: $17,500/year stipend.

Are you interested in participatory research in rural development?

Or studying education for sustainable development?

Are sustainable livelihoods in housing or food of interest?

Are you keen on action research for Indigenous Community Development?

Work with an exciting team in the Mino Bimaadiziwin Partnership to research: Indigenous food systems, sustainable housing, Indigenous community development, sustainable livelihoods (food, education or housing related) or adult sustainable education.
