James Queskekapow is a member of the Norway House Cree Nation, and is a fluent Cree speaker. He is currently enrolled in a PhD Program, in Peace and Conflict Studies, at the University of Manitoba, and holds a Master Degree in Native Studies, from the University of Manitoba. In addition, he is employed on a full-time basis as a Child Welfare Secretariat Policy Analyst, with the Manitoba Keewatinowi Okimakanak, Inc.

James, in his role as a Storyteller, has been invited to attend various institutions and events to share traditional stories. As a practicing Traditional Storyteller, James has utilized traditional stories to promote Aboriginal language retention, cultural revitalization and to serve as an opportunity to engage in a non-intrusive dialogue.
